Business, Philanthropy & Growth of Sport

Maggie Steffens

Business, Philanthropy & Growth of Sport

- Co-founder & co-owner in majority Latina sports technology data company 6-8 Sports. The athlete performance analytics proprietary technology that they have created has brought new innovation to the sport, though the technology will cross-over into additional team sports in the future.
- From her time at Stanford, Maggie has always been one to give back first to local children's hospitals and began an initiative to increase awareness around pool safety for kids
- Maggie has worked with Council for a Strong America (national organization of athletes and coaches who come together to make sure every child can compete in life
- She has been a USOPC Team for Tomorrow ambassador
- Raised over $22,000 for (multiple) hurricane relief efforts for Puerto Rico (impact fund for Boys & Girls Clubs of P.R. & Global Giving in 2022)
- She has worked to bring Water Polo to under-developed nations or nations who do not necessarily treat gender in an equitable manner from coaching to sport access (most recently in South Africa - Fall 2022, but with travel to New Zealand, Hungary, Montenegro Spain) and inspiring more non-traditional U.S. markets to try the sport in Utah, Colorado, Florida, Texas, Connecticut and Puerto Rico
